Resolutions of Respect.

—At a meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Paris, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, In the wise providence of God, our much beloved sister, Mrs. Eliza Phillips, sweetly "fell asleep in Jesus," on Saturday evening, November 29, 1902, leaving vacant her place in church and society, which she so long and faithfully occupied.

Resolved, That as a Society, while we mourn her loss, we bow our hearts in submission and thankfulness to God for her noble life preserved through so many years of usefulness.

Resolved, That in her death the society loses a devoted sister and friend, the church a faithful consistent member, and the community a true Christian, the influence of whose life will prove for many years to come a tensile power drawing upward to a better, purer, and more consecrated life those who came under her personal influence. She was a good and true woman, a beloved sister endeared to all by her lovely Christian character, and by her gentle winning ways. Those who knew her best were impressed with her quiet unassuming Christianity, exemplified by her unyielding loyalty to Christ, pure life, labor of love, and unflinching zeal in the promotion of the Kingdom of Christ. May we emulate her zeal for Christ and her charity and love for her neighbors.

Resolved, That our sympathy is tendered devoted and stricken loved ones and pray they may have the rich consolation of God's grace and the assurance, God doeth all things well, and in due time there will be a reunion, after which separations are known no more.

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent the bereaved loved ones, to the papers, and that they be spread upon the minutes of our society as a memorial page.

LATEST FASHION NOTES.

Berry-Red a Fashionable Color.

This handsome gown of berry-red zibeline, has a bolero waist, which is shortened to disclose a tucked lower portion. The stylish collar has tab extensions, and a scarf of black tulle is knotted over the bust. The skirt is tucked at the top to hip yoke depth, and is outlined by strappings stitched with Corticelli spool silk; fancy ornaments are added. The sleeves follow the fashionable Du Barry shaping.

All the shades of red are in vogue, from the blushing cherry tints, to the richer darker shades ranging from dahlia to wine, mahogany, claret and cedar. For the hour there is nothing more charming than a red gown, relieved with a touch of black and white on the waist. The skirt could be plaited, with a generous sweep, and a similar embellishment displayed in the waist and voluminous sleeves. Red hats covered with shaded dahlias, or scarlet pataled roses, are smart, and ball and dinner gowns of geranium-colored crepe have almost deposed the pinks and blues.

TONSORIAL.—The neatest and best equipped barber shop in Paris is that of Carl Crawford, on M. in street, adjoining the Bourbon Bank. He has five chairs and his attendants are at all times attentive and will give you good service. His bath-rooms are the largest and most complete in the city. When you want a good shave, a hair cut or bath, call and see Carl, and he will treat you right.
